II. Opening remarks from Mr. Banasco

Mr. Banasco let the board know that Corrections Officer Terry Geigle passed away unexpectedly on 1/31/20. There will be a memorial service on 2/21/20 at the Justice Center. She was well loved. Staff is still struggling. Mr. Banasco will send out more information on the memorial to the board members.

III. He stated the Jail census is 864 inmates today. 764 males and 100 females.

76% are pretrial, 16% probation violations and 8% sentenced

He stated there are 10 officers starting on March 2, 2020. There are 23 vacancies for Corrections Officers.

Rev. Duvall asked if the board could get a list of inmates that have been in jail for an extended amount of time.

Dr. Smith asked about 16% in probation violations. He wants to know their charges and what the violation are for.

Mr. Banasco stated that Justice Services has 3 probation officers in jail helping with probation violators.

Ms. Taylor would like a time range for probation violators and how many.

Dr. McBride would like a length of stay statistics.
