DIRECTIONS FOR SUBMITTING APPLICATIONS
FOR
MASTER AND JOURNEYMAN LICENSE EXAMINATIONS

1. Applications must be submitted at least seven (7) days prior to the meeting date to be on the Agenda.
2. Applicants must pay the application fee when application for examination is submitted.
3. When applying for a Master or Journeyman and you are licensed in a location other than St. Louis County, Missouri, you must furnish a copy of each license, and a signed notarized letter from present and/or former employers that verify dates of relevant employment. A verification form is available for use.
4. Persons applying for the Journeyman Plumber examination shall submit notarized letters as stated in item #2, and also submit verification of their apprenticeship training.
5. All notarized letters from former and present employers must be on company letterhead.
6. The St. Louis County Missouri Board of Plumber & Drainlayer Examiners reviews all applications at a regularly scheduled Board meeting. You will be notified of the decision of the Board. In the event the applicant is denied approval by the Board of Examiners, there is no refund of the application fee. If applications are not approved for lack of verification of requirements, typically the application is tabled for a reasonable time to enable the applicant to obtain the necessary third party verification or other needed W-2's, certifications, transcripts etc.
7. Upon the approval of an applicant by the Board of Examiners, the applicant will be mailed an examination registration packet for the selected testing agency. The applicant must take the exam within seven months (six test dates) of the date on the registration form.
8. Applicants that pass the examination are required to register at the Office of Plumbing and Sewer Inspection, complete an application for license, and pay the license fee. If the applicant desires the license may be put on inactive status at that time.
9. An applicant failing to pass an examination for a license may not retake the examination for ninety (90) calendar days. An application to retake the examination may be submitted no sooner than ninety (90) calendar days prior to becoming eligible to take the examination.
